

Target Audience

Deans, Directors, Chairs of Nursing Programs across North Carolina

Program Description

This meeting of the NC AHEC Nurse Council and leaders in Nursing Academia will provide a forum to engage colleagues in a lively discussion on innovative approaches to building clinical capacity, and enhancing faculty recruitment, retention and succession planning. A future forward look at building sustainable quality nursing education programs will be illustrated by several regional program presentations. Dr. Warren Newton will conclude the program with insight into AHEC and Nursing education collaborations.

Outcome

The learner will synthesize innovative approaches to building clinical capacity, facilitating faculty sustainability, and exploring the future of AHEC collaborations with the nursing education community.
