

CONVENTION 2016

Nursing Practice, Education, and Leadership
September 28-30

Benton Convention Center | Twin City Quarter | Winston-Salem, North Carolina

The 2016 NCNA Annual Convention will be at the Benton Convention Center | Twin City Quarter in Winston-Salem. Now in our 109th year, the Annual Convention continues to be the best nursing event of the year in North Carolina, offering incredible opportunities for networking, professional development, and critical association business. Most importantly: you can make an impact on groundbreaking issues that shape the entire profession! Our Membership Forum is designed to be a lively, future-focused discussion that engages attendees in group interaction, sharing, and learning. Contribute your voice to the future of the profession while learning from peers and earning valuable contact hours.

2016 OPENING KEYNOTE

Beverly Malone, PhD, RN, FAAN

Our keynote address this year will be delivered by Beverly Malone, PhD, RN, FAAN, who will speak about The Power and Leadership of Nursing—Review of National League of Nursing Core Values.

As the CEO of the National League for Nursing (NLN),

Dr. Malone has spent a lot of time and effort retooling the League's mission to reflect its values of caring, diversity, integrity, and excellence, along with an ongoing focus on advancing the health of the nation and the global community. She was ranked amongst the "100 Most Powerful People in Healthcare" by Modern Healthcare magazine in 2010 and 2015. Her distinguished career has mixed policy, education, administration, and clinical practice.

Within the last several years, Dr. Malone was elected to the Institute of Medicine and tapped to join the board of the Kaiser Family Foundation. Dr. Malone served on the Institute of Medicine's Forum on the Future of Nursing Education, contributing to the IOM's groundbreaking report, The Future of Nursing: Leading Change, Advancing Health. She also sat on the Advisory Committee on Minority Health, a federal panel established to advise the US Secretary of Health and Human Services.

Dr. Malone has worked as a surgical staff nurse, clinical nurse specialist, director of nursing, and assistant administrator of nursing. During the 1980s she was dean of the School of Nursing at North Carolina Agricultural and Technical State University. In 1996, she was elected to two terms as president of the American Nurses Association (ANA). In 2000, she became Deputy Assistant Secretary for Health within the US Department of Health and Human Services. Prior to joining the NLN, Dr. Malone spent more than five years as the general secretary of the Royal College of Nursing (RCN), the United Kingdom's largest professional union of nurses.

Breakfast with ANA President Pam Cipriano

We will welcome ANA President Pam Cipriano, PhD, RN, NEA-BC, FAAN on Thursday morning. Dr. Cipriano is the 35th president of ANA. A distinguished nursing leader, Dr. Cipriano has held executive positions in health care systems, academia and national professional organizations in her career. In 2015, she was named one of the "Top 100 People in Healthcare" and one of the "Top 25 Women in Healthcare," both by Modern Healthcare magazine. Prior to becoming ANA president, Dr. Cipriano was senior director for health care management consulting at Galloway Advisory by iVantage. Dr. Cipriano is known nationally as a strong advocate for health care quality, and has served on a number of boards and committees for high-profile organizations, including the National Quality Forum and the Joint Commission.

Staff Nurse Fatigue and Patient Safety

Friday morning's general session is a fantastic discussion by Ann R. Rogers, PhD, RN, FAAN, FAASM, on the effects of fatigue and its impact on patient, nurse, and public safety. Dr. Rogers holds the Edith F. Honeycutt Chair in Nursing at Nell Hodgson Woodruff School of Nursing, Emory University, where she is a professor and Director of the Graduate Program. Dr. Rogers is nationally known for her work on the Staff Nurse and Patient Safety Study, which documented the adverse effects of nurses' long work hours on patient safety. She received the AACN Pioneering Spirit Award in 2015 from the American Association of Critical Care Nurses for her impact.
